1. CALL TO ORDER

Marvin Gregory, with a quorum present, called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. on day, February 20, 2020 at the Public Works Meeting Room in the Library complex located at 4900 River Oaks Blvd., River Oaks, Texas 76114.

2. INTRODUCTIONS: All members present and accounted for.

WORK SESSION:

3. STRATEGIC PLANNING REVIEWING AND MODIFYING ACTIVITIES AND INCORPORATE NEW INNOVATIVE ACTIVITIES, PROMOTING CENSUS AWARENESS IN SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES AND REFLECTING A TRUE SNAPSHOT OF COMMUNITY.

Shirley Wheat has made Census signs for businesses and yards, laminated, has 50. She has designed other signs for promotion to be placed around community. Shirley named several locations where two-sided signs will be placed. She is also having magnetic sheets made that can and will be placed on city garbage trucks. These may be placed on personal vehicles, as well.

Committee discussed having signs in Spanish. J.P. Castanon agreed. He will place signs around his church once received.

Joann Butler asked about making signs for businesses in the community. She agreed to post these once received.

Marvin Gregory stated that he can place a Census message on the city marquee.

Marvin Gregory stated that he will contact other churches in the area, including One Faith Church, Pastor Andy Salazar.

Shirley Wheat stated that preparation and signs need to be ready and complete in March. Committee discussed other places to post signs: YMCA, ball field driveway, and others.

Marvin Gregory stated that sign-making materials will come from city funds, not spending more than $500. Shirley Wheat agreed.

Shirley Wheat discussed the Back to School Bash with Castleberry ISD representative as a last big push. It is at the end of July, but no date has been set.

Chris Carathers, Partnership Specialist from the U.S. Census, confirmed that two Spanish-speaking Census representatives will be present at the Census table at the CC Health Fair, March 7.

Bob Jameson contacted four tv stations asking if they had been contacted by the Census information, they did not have info yet, but did not give them instructions not wanting to "step on other's toes." But he did see a Census advertisement on the Fox station after he called. He contacted VA news and they are excited about being involved.
