Obituary

Geneva Kay Cassidy

Geneva Kay Cassidy, aged 70, passed away on Dec. 31, 2023.

A celebration of life was held on Sunday, Jan. 14, 2024 at 1 p.m. at Los Vaqueros Restaurant in the Stockyards for all friends to celebrate the life of Kay Cassidy.

Kay graduated from Castleberry High School in 1971. She met her husband James while working at Green Oaks Inn and they were married on Aug. 21, 1976.

They recently celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary this past August. Kay had retired from Texas Health Hospitals in 2021 after working there for over 20 years.

In her free time, Kay loved spending time with her husband, six grandchildren, sewing, traveling to the beach whenever possible, and drinking margaritas with her friends. Kay was immensely proud of her family and leaves behind nothing but beautiful memories.

She is preceded in death by her son, Jonathan Sons.

She is survived by her husband of 47 years, James; two daughters, Jamie Beckham (husband, Billy) and Katie Bulger (husband, Patrick); and her most beloved grandchildren: Colt, Cassidy, Harper, Sean, Sloan, and Spencer.

Poly, on Dec. 22.

However, that was followed up with losses to Alvarado (6-1, on Jan. 4) and Ennis (1-0, on Jan. 6). They were hoping to get back in the win column on this evening against Crowley.

The Lady Eagles entered the contest with an impressive 3-1 record with victories over Fossil Ridge (1-0), North Forney (2-1), and Mansfield Summit (2-1). Their only loss was to Horn (4-2). In this particular contest between the Lady Lions and the Lady Eagles the game was close to begin with, and despite not giving up many shots on goal, the Lady Lions fell by the score of 5-0.

The Lady Lions began the game with a strong defensive effort. They fought off 6 shots on goal by the Lady Eagles during the first 20 minutes of the contest.

Meanwhile, CHS actually got 4 shots on goal themselves. But the scoreless tie was broken at the 16:35 mark when Crowley scored and led 1-0. Unfortunately for the home team, the Lady Eagles scored again just 3 minutes later (13:29) to push their lead to 2-0. Despite just being out shot 9-5 with kicks on goal in the 1st half, the Lady Lions were down 2-0 at halftime.

The second half was somewhat similar. It began with both teams just getting one shot on goal in the first 15 minutes, with neither team scoring.

But at the 23:56 mark the Lady Eagles found the back of the net and took a commanding 3-0 lead. That lead grew to 4-0 at the 16:43 mark. The final goal came at the 13:56 mark.

In the second half, the Lady Lions had 5 shots on goal, which was only 1 less than the Lady Eagles. Sadly, for the Lady Lions, half of Crowley's shots on goal in the second half found paydirt. This made the final score: Crowley 5, Castleberry 0.

The Lady Lions will travel to Western Hills to face the Lady Cougars on Jan. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Avoid Penalties - Pay Property Taxes by Jan. 31

The last day to pay 2023 property taxes to avoid penalty and interest is Wednesday Jan. 31, 2024.

“All eight of the Tarrant County Tax Office locations are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. to assist taxpayers with their property tax payments, but we encourage taxpayers to pay online whenever possible to avoid the crowds,” said Wendy Burgess, Tarrant County Tax Assessor-Collector.

- Property taxes can be paid online at Tax Payer website
- Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover is accepted for online payments and in person at all branch locations. A convenience fee* will be added to debit and credit card payments.
- Online e-Check payments can be made with no additional convenience fee.
- Pay-by-phone is available 24/7 at 817-884-1110.
- Payments made by mail are posted according to the US Postal Service postmark date. Ensure that your payment is postmarked by the U.S. Postal Service by January 31, 2024, to avoid penalty and interest. Take extra precautions when paying by mail due to occurrences of checks stolen, washed, cashed and ultimately not delivered to the Tax Office.
- Online and phone payments must be completed by 11:59 p.m. Central Standard Time on Jan. 31, 2024. Incomplete and pending payments completed at or after midnight Central Standard Time on February 1, 2024, will be posted accordingly.
- Except under very specific circumstances, the Texas Property Tax Code does not authorize the Tax Assessor-Collector to waive penalty and interest.

- There is no provision in the Tax Code for a delayed payment or extended due date due to inclement weather conditions or other emergencies.

The Tarrant County Tax Office Customer Service Center is available at 817-884-1100 to assist citizens with property tax and motor vehicle questions.

Phone lines are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., with extended hours on January 29, 30, and 31 until 7 p.m.

“Please do not hesitate to contact us with your questions,” Burgess said. “The Tarrant County Tax Office encourages citizens who cannot pay in full to make partial payments. Partial payments will be applied and only the remaining balance will be subject to penalties rather than the full original amount due.”

Due to a high call volume, taxpayers may experience a delay in speaking with a customer service representative over the phone. An alternative method of contact for taxpayers is to email taxoffice@tarrant-countytx.gov. Please allow a 48-hour response time for emails.

Visit the Tarrant County Tax Office website or call the Customer Service Center at 817-884-1100 if you need additional assistance or visit us in person at any of our branch locations.

*Convenience fees are charged by the credit card service company for all debit and credit transactions.

Values, exemptions, and ownership/address updates are handled by Tarrant Appraisal District. You can reach them by phone at 817-284-0024 or through their website at TAD.org.

American Soldier, Actor, and Songwriter - Audie Murphy

In Texas, 76 men have been awarded the Medal of Honor for their courage above and beyond the call of duty since the inception of the medal. Perhaps the most recognizable of those figures from World War II was Audie Murphy.

Murphy was born into a desperately poor family in Hunt County in 1925. His father abandoned the family when he was young, and he, his mother, and his sister moved between Farmersville and Greenville often for work. He quit school in the fifth grade in order to help support the family, and in 1941, his mother died.

When World War II started, Murphy tried to enlist in the Marines and the navy, but both rejected him because of his short height and thin build. The army, however, accepted him in 1942. In 1943, he fought in Italy before being transferred to France in 1944. High casualties in his platoon and his own gallantry resulted in a series of promotions from private to lieutenant.

On Jan. 24, 1945, Murphy was wounded in both legs as his division held off an attack by Nazi forces near the German border. High casualties led him eventually to take command of his company.

On Jan. 26, his company came under attack by advancing Nazi troops accompanied by six German tanks. Not willing to see any more of his men injured, he ordered them to fall back to defensive positions in the nearby woods while he directed artillery against the Germans.

When a tank destroyer was hit, Murphy ordered the men to safety, climbed atop the burning destroyer, and started firing its .50-caliber machine gun against the Germans. For nearly an hour, he single-handedly pinned down the Germans, killing nearly 50 enemy troops while being injured in the leg himself. He then ordered his men into a counterattack that repelled the German force, saving the day.

For his gallantry, Murphy was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. Portions of the incident were recreated in the popular 1955 autobiographical film To Hell and Back, which starred Murphy.

He was honorably discharged in 1945. As one of the most decorated American soldiers of World War II, he also earned two silver stars and two bronze stars for bravery, the Distinguished Service Cross, and three Purple Hearts for injuries sustained in combat. In spite of his own gallantry, Murphy was quick to point out the heroics of others whom he felt never got credit. "There were so many guys who should have gotten medals and never did -- guys who were killed."

His fame led him to appear in more than 40 movies after the war. Most of his movies were westerns. He would sometimes laugh about his acting. "I'm working under a great handicap -- no talent," he would quip. He also returned to military service in the Texas National Guard in the 1950s, eventually reaching the rank of major.

While he enjoyed success as an actor and rancher after the war, the post-war years were very chaotic for Murphy. He engaged in very impulsive behavior such as addictions to gambling and problems with alcohol and prescription pain-killers and developed money problems. He also developed severe problems with anxiety, violent outbursts, and migraines.

Murphy often talked about his own issues with what he called "shell shock," a common name at the time for the condition which is more properly understood as Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder today. In the 1960s, he began urging the military to take more action to help veterans cope with these symptoms.

He died in a plane crash in 1971 at the age of 45. In honor of his service, the Audie Murphy Veterans Hospital in San Antonio was dedicated in 1973, and the Audie Murphy American Cotton Museum was later established in Greenville.

In recent years, the military has worked to establish new programs to help combat veterans cope with PTSD issues, but it still remains a daunting problem for many veterans.
