Castleberry Lions Win Barnburner Against Bullfrogs

The Lions played their cross-town rivals from Lake Worth on Friday, Feb. 11. The Bullfrogs won the first meeting of the teams on Jan. 11 at Lake Worth by the score of 79-70. It has been Lake Worth's only district victory. Castleberry of course was hoping to avenge that loss, this time playing on their home court. It was also Parent Night to add to the Lions motivation. This all played out to the Lions advantage as they earned a victory in a hard-fought physical game by the final score of 50-46.

Junior Amin BaAhmad's (#23) bucket for the Lions in the opening minute of the game gave them an early lead. Castleberry moved out to a 6-5 lead at the 3:04 mark of the first quarter. The Bullfrogs then scored the next 4 points to take a 9-6 lead just a minute later (2:03/first). But CHS closed the quarter strong scoring 6 unanswered points to take a 12-9 lead at the end of the first quarter. Senior Gaston Ortega (#10) scored half of the Lions points (6) in the opening quarter.

Both teams opened the second quarter sloppily as they combined for five turnovers in just 60 seconds. The play settled down and the Bullfrogs scored 5 straight points and grabbed a 14-12 lead. The early see-saw battle soon had CHS retake the lead 16-14 with 4:04 left in the second quarter. The Bullfrogs quickly responded with an old fashioned 3-point play; a made basket and foul resulting in a free throw to give them back a 17-16 lead. This would be their last lead of the game. The Lions once again closed the quarter with a surge. They outscored the Bullfrogs 14-7 in the last 3 ½ minutes of the second quarter. This time led by senior Steve Hernandez's (#11) 8 points in the quarter they took a 30-24 lead into the locker room at halftime.

The third quarter saw both teams struggle to put points on the scoreboard. Combined the teams were 0-for-8 from the 3-point line and 1-for-7 from the foul line. The Lions 6-point lead at half-time grew to as large as 9 at one point (40-31). The quarter ended with Castleberry leading 40-33.

A wild and crazy fourth quarter was in store for the large crowd watching the final home game of the season. The last quarter began with a quick couple of turnovers by both teams in the opening 35 seconds. The Lions went stone cold in the fourth quarter. They only managed two buckets in the entire quarter, with a 2-pointer by senior Eddie Hernandez (#1) at the 6:50 mark and a 3-pointer by Ortega with 5:10 left in the game. The Bullfrogs slowly, but steadily, whittled away the Lions lead. With 2:02 left they had closed to within 2 points – and trailed 46-44. This was also when the Lions lost their starting point guard Eddie Hernandez who fouled out. This was a very physical game.

There were a combined 55 free throws shot in this game with 21 coming in the fourth quarter. With 1:58 left a technical foul was called on Lake Worth and gave CHS a chance to give the Lions a little breathing room. However, CHS missed both free throws. With 56.3 seconds left in the game the Bullfrogs pulled within one (46-45) on a free throw. The entire crowd was on edge for the last minute of play. Even though the Lions only made 5 of 11 free throws in the quarter – this is where they won the game. With 42.5 seconds left the Bullfrogs intentionally fouled Steve Hernandez (#11). CHS Basketball (continued from page 1)

Hernandez calmly sank both pressure packed free throws to stretch the CHS lead to 48-45. This was followed by a big defensive play when Lake Worth was called for an offensive charge on a baseline drive with just 27.1 seconds left in the game. The Bullfrogs were again forced to intentionally foul at this point in the game. They picked the wrong player when they fouled Hernandez again. He sank another free throw to push the lead to 49-45. The Bullfrogs drew a foul on the Lions later with 5.8 seconds left and had two free throws with a chance to cut the CHS lead in half. They made the first free throw to pull within three.

At this point there seemed to be a little confusion as the game stopped for a short time. The Bullfrog shooting the free throw went back to the line to shoot his second free throw, but all other players were placed in the back court. He missed the that foul shot and then the Lions Steve Hernandez was put on the foul line to shoot two free throws. He made the first one for a 50-46 lead but missed the second one. The Lions then in-bounded the ball at half court to end the exciting game with a 50-46 victory.

The Lions ended their regular season on Tuesday, Feb. 15 against the Springtown Porcupines.

Free Rides for Primary Election Early Voting, Election Day

Throughout early voting and on Tuesday, March 1, Tarrant County voters will once again be able to catch free rides to the polls on Trinity Metro, Arlington's Via and other transit services.

Riders can show their voter registration card or current Texas ID and ride for free during early voting now through Feb. 25 and on Election Day, March 1.

The Tarrant County Commissioners Court approved a partnership with transportation services in Tarrant County to pay for customer trips to voting locations, with an amount not to exceed $30,000.

This program is a continuation of the Election Transportation Program that was offered in November 2019, March 2020, November 2020 and November 2021.

"It is crucial that people get out to vote in the primary election, and access to transportation should not be a barrier to getting to polling locations," said Tarrant County Judge Glen Whitley. "We are pleased to be able to once again offer free rides, including accessible services for the elderly and mobility-impaired, through this partnership."

MAYOR JOE ASHTON ATTEST: PAULA LUCK, CITY SECRETARY

Texas Railroad Commissioner, General Ernest O. Thompson

by Dr. Ken Bridges

Not everyone is destined to win all the races they race or the fights that they fight. And on some special select occasions, some of those daring souls are recognized for what they do achieve and the importance of the work to which they dedicate their lives. One of those figures is one-time Amarillo mayor Ernest O. Thompson. Thompson was denied his attempt to become governor decades ago, but his impact as a Railroad Commissioner still has a strong impact on modern Texas.

Thompson was born in Alvord, a small community in Wise County, in 1892. In 1902, the family moved to Amarillo, where his father ran a drug store. As a youth, he was considered bright and hard-working. And he always had an eye for opportunity, cleverly coming up with ways to find work or talk his way into a job.

He graduated from the University of Texas with a law degree in 1917. He joined the army in the midst of World War I, serving in the infantry.

In 1918, Thompson was cited for his innovative techniques with mass, coordinated machine gun fire and promoted to lieutenant colonel. He returned to Amarillo in 1919 to practice law. Thompson was one of the organizers of the American Legion, a group of veterans dedicated to helping veterans.

In 1928, he ran for mayor, pledging to cut utility rates and won easily. In 1932, Gov.

Ross Sterling appointed Thompson to the Texas Railroad Commission.

The role of the Railroad Commission steadily expanded from railroad hauling rates to regulating oil pipelines and oil and gas production by World War I. It expanded to other forms of energy and transportation in the 1920s.

The wild East Texas oil field was producing a fortune, but waste and reckless drilling threatened its long-term stability. Drilling too much too quickly for too long had ruined the production yield in oil fields in other parts of the country, even though the oil was still available. Overproduction had caused East Texas oil prices to drop 90 percent.

Thompson introduced a series of measures that limited production and oversaw safety measures, all designed in a way that protected the interests of smaller producers and still protected the interests of corporations. In a short time, prices stabilized, safety began to improve, and production remained sustainable.

In appreciation for his efforts, Gov. James V. Allred of Wichita Falls appointed Thompson colonel in the Texas National Guard in 1936. Though Thompson was not a producer himself, he was recognized globally as an expert on oil production.

In 1937, President Franklin D. Roosevelt sent him as the American delegate to the World Petroleum Conference in France.

In 1938, he decided to run for governor. Thompson started the primary season as the prohibitive favorite to succeed Gov. Allred. Initially, his biggest opponent for the Democratic nomination was William McCraw, the state attorney general and a former Dallas prosecutor, and corporate attorney Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls. A slew of other candidates joined in, with most of the debate centered on the lingering effects of the Great Depression and calls for aid to schools and the poor and a state teacher's pension.

That spring, W. Lee "Pappy" O'Daniel, a popular Fort Worth based radio broadcaster whose noon broadcasts of popular country music and his homespun humor won him thousands of fans, jumped into the race. A master showman, Pappy O'Daniel drew huge crowds to his campaign rallies with his wit and free concerts performed by his Light Crust Doughboys band. Few polls were conducted, but it was clear who had the advantage. Thompson held onto hopes that he could enter the usual runoff. But O'Daniel won the July primary with 51 percent of the vote, with Thompson finishing a distant second with only 21 percent. O'Daniel then went on to win the general election with an astounding 97 percent of the vote.

Thompson was still on the Railroad Commission but decided for a re-match against O'Daniel in 1940. The result was about the same, with O'Daniel winning 54 percent of the vote to 21.6 percent for the runner-up Thompson.

When World War II erupted, Thompson, now nearing 50, rejoined the army. As the Allies needed a steady supply of fuel as much as they needed troops in the field, Thompson was sent back home to his duties on the Railroad Commission to ensure a steady flow of oil and natural gas to the military. Texas was a key part of this effort.

Thompson was elected to three more terms on the Railroad Commission after the war. Gov. Allan Shivers appointed Thompson as general of the National Guard in 1952.

As the years advanced and his health started to decline, Thompson decided to retire. In January 1965, he formally stepped down from the commission. He built a steady list of honors for his work.

Amarillo had named a park in his honor, and Alvord placed a historical marker in the community.

And to further honor of his years of service, the State of Texas renamed the old Austin Daily Tribune Building after Thompson later in 1965. He died just 18 months later at age 74.

His 33 years on the Railroad Commission is still the longest in state history. The 11-story building named for him is today home to the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation.
